Marra Opposes Noll
For Second Deputy
Of Fire DepartmentKinsey and Jacob to Be Moved Up; Several Company Contests

With Robert N. Kinsey slated to be advanced from first deputy to chief, and Julius C. Jacob, Jr., from second deputy to first, interest in the annual election of officers of the Freeport Fire Department next Thursday night centers in the contest for the second deputyship between John E. Marra, of Engine Co. 1, and William J. Noll, of Hose Co. 3, for the second deputyship.

Both are veteran fire fighters. Marra, who lives at 123 Washburn ave., has been a member of the Wide Awake Engine Co. for 22 years and occupied all the offices including first and second lieutenants, captain and warden. He has been treasurer of the Fire Council, is head custodian of the Columbus ave. school, and a past president of the Freeport School Custodians. He has been a Freeporter for 29 years. His wife is the former Miss Margaret Giordano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giordano, old time residents of Freeport, and the couple have two daughters, Barbara, a Freeport High School senior, and Carol, a pupil in the Columbus ave. school.

Noll joined the Bayview Hose Co. 3 twelve years ago and also has come up through the ranks. He is co-chairman of the entertainment committee of the Fire Council, having served on the committee for eight years. He is a past president of the Fire Council, and has been a member of the Fire Council for 13 years and is the manager of Signal Motors, Rockville Centre.

The company elections take place Tuesday night, and there are several contests for various offices. In Hose Co. 1, there are three aspirants for the warden's post and two for financial secretary. Seven are entered in the race for trustee of Hose Co. 4, while there are contests for the second lieutenant and warden-ship of Hose Co. 5 and a contest for second lieutenant in Engine Co. 7.

Company Candidates
The lists of candidates to be voted on at the elections of the seven companies are as follows:

INTRODUCES

... Morris P. Carlisle

"You're looking good today!" This is the greeting with which Morris Carlisle smilingly greets customers at his C & R Restaurant on W. Merrick rd. His friendly spirit and the fact that he is one of "new" Freeport residents and businessmen, lead to this newspaper introduction. Morris Carlisle is a symbol of the type which came to, and settled in, Nassau County, and which doubled the population in the last ten years and made this the fastest growing community in the United States. He was born in Birmingham, Ala., and when he came to Long Island to visit fourteen years ago, liked the climate and the people so much that he decided to settle here. A congenial nature, knowledge of his business, and patient perseverance, helped him attain his success in Freeport.

Morris started working at the C & R about eight and a half years ago. Soon after he became a partner and on February 6th became sole owner of this progressive enterprise. This thirty-seven year old restaurateur is a World War II veteran with two years of Army service. He served as cook in the ETO (Germany, France, Luxembourg). Mr. Carlisle knows all phases of the restaurant business because he started at the bottom and worked in the kitchen, as a short-order cook, counterman, and finally as a cook. His whole life has been associated with the food business.

The Morris Carlises, (she's the former Elizabeth Salter) reside at 62 South Bay st., with their three children, Eugene, sixteen year old student at Freeport High School, Richard 8, and Betty Ann 6. Morris is a member of the Freeport Lodge of Elks No. 1253, Freeport Chamber of Commerce, and is a past president of the Freeport Elks Club. He is also a member of the Freeport Elks Club, and is a past president of the Freeport Elks Club. He is also a member of the Freeport Elks Club, and is a past president of the Freeport Elks Club.

"I take a personal interest in the buying and the preparation of the food we serve here at the C & R," said Morris Carlisle. "I am fortunate to have such a capable chef as Walter Marri and an efficient and cooperative staff. We are open 24 hours and since it's impossible for me to be here all the time, my crew endeavors to give the same personal service at all times. Yes, I liked Freeport fourteen years ago and I like it even more now. I want to thank my customers for their patronage and for the chance to continue saying 'You're looking good today!'"

Christine Nelson
To Participate In
Quiz Kid Program

Christine Nelson, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Nelson, 198 Green ave., a sixth-grade pupil in the Shubert School, Baldwin, is to participate in the Quiz Kid Program over Station WNBC Sunday at 1:30 P. M., with other elementary school pupils. She was selected in a competition conducted for candidates in the New York Metropolitan area.

Christine appeared on the New York Times Forum for Junior High School students last Saturday in a program broadcast over Station WQXR. The advisability of extending the low-cost housing program was discussed by the young broadcasters. The girl has attended the Shubert school for five years. Her teacher is Edward L. Dennozka.

The family has lived in Freeport six years. Her father is an electronics engineer.

Taxi Zones and Rates
Agreed On; Will be Adopted on April 17East-West Overlapping Area Approved; Night
Charges to be Continued

Zones and rates to govern the operation of taxicabs were agreed on at a hearing conducted by the Village Board at a meeting Monday night. They will now be reduced to writing and adopted for the first of May.

Except for a last minute change providing an overlapping area for fares going east and west across the village, the zones and fares are the same as those announced exclusively by THE LEADER in its March 16 issue. The overlapping area will be bounded on the west by Long Beach ave. and on the east by Jay St. Hearing p. Henry and South Main sts. A person residing in the western section desiring to take a taxicab going east will be taken along Merrick rd. to Henry st. for 35 cents, for example, and then charged an additional 15 cents to charged a ride from the Baldwin to the Merrick line, or vice-versa, will be 50 cents.

It also was agreed that the additional charge now made after 10 o'clock at night will be continued. However, in most instances this will not be an increase over present fares at that hour. In the 35-cent zones, where the fare now is 25 cents during the day and 50 cents at night, the latter charge will continue to be 50 cents.

However, a passenger conveyed into the north and south overlap (Continued on Page 12)

Taking of Census
To be Started Here
Saturday Morning22 Enumerators Named
From Eligible List;
A. R. MacMillan Chief

Taking of the 1950 Federal Census will get under way in Freeport on Saturday, April 8, Mr. MacMillan, the crew leader announced today. The 22 enumerators, who will do the work are receiving their instructions this week under the direction of Mr. MacMillan, were sworn in by him Tuesday morning in Pythian Hall. The class will continue today and tomorrow from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. Mr. MacMillan's talks will be illustrated by records and slides.

The village has been divided into 29 enumeration districts. The 22 census takers will start one of these districts on Saturday and continue there until the work is completed before moving into another. The census taking is expected to be completed in two weeks, though the time may be extended if necessary. Every vacant house is to be listed. The enumerators will work morning, afternoon and night in an effort to make the census complete.

Most persons will have to answer about 20 questions though some will have to reply to more than that number. The enumerators are sworn to secrecy, concerning information divulged by respondents. (Continued on Page 2)

Parking Meter Hours
Set at 9 A. M. - 8 P. M.
By the Village BoardCompromise Between Civics and Merchants;
To Take Effect May 1

The Village Board at its meeting Monday night adopted an amendment to the Parking Meter Ordinance fixing the hours during which the meters will be operated in the business area from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. The change will become effective on May 1. They now are operated until 9 P. M.

Village merchants recently requested that the evening hour be fixed at 6 o'clock. However, representatives of the Atlantic-South and Northwest Civic Associations, following instructions given them at meetings of the two groups, appeared at a hearing and urged that the present hours be retained. Consequently the hours fixed are a compromise. Also the board members contended that in-as-much as a person parking a car and depositing a nickel in a machine can preempt a space for the entire evening an hour before the closing hour, to fix the time at 6 o'clock would really mean 5. Thus, they contend that the 8 o'clock agreed on really means 7 o'clock. Plates on all the meters indicating the hours during which they will be operated will have to be changed to correspond with the new hours.

$9,000 Raised Here In March of Dimes

Mrs. Elmore Keener Reports $5,000 Quota Exceeded by 80 P.C.

Freeport exceeded its quota in the January March of Dimes by 80 percent, Mrs. Elmore L. Keener, village chairman, announced today. Assigned a quota of $5,000, donations totaled $9,000.

The Freeport showing earned the commendation of Mrs. George A. Stevenson, Nassau County chairman, who also reported that the total for the county was $200,000. Mrs. Stevenson expressed her gratitude to each chairman and to the thousands of volunteers who worked tirelessly to make the 1950 fund appeal of the Nassau County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, a success.

"Without the help of my chairman, which was pledged last Summer when the county was experiencing a terrible polio outbreak, we never would have attempted to seek the largest quota in the chapter's history."

"Half of the funds collected have gone to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis—Nassau County has made a substantial contribution to the furtherance of research at a time when scientists believe that the control of polio is almost within their grasp."

"The other half will stay in Nassau County. Part of the funds contributed this year are now paying the bills of polio victims of the 1949 epidemic because the chapter was 'flat broke' when the year ended. The balance assures us that we can face whatever this Summer may bring, prepared to aid every polio patient who asks for assistance."

Herold will have the part of Halsey Carter, her husband. Others to have name roles are Beatrice Hellingworth, Frank Burdett, Mildred Turnau, Peter and Madeline Joy, William Smith, Horace N. On the committee for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Muller, chaircouple; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darrow, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Gray, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Smith Lyke, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schoene and Mr. and Mrs. J. Maynard Wetlaufer.

Village Board Winds Up Year's Work

The Village Board wound up its year in office prior to the organization meeting Monday night by taking final action on two matters that have been pending for some time.

These were the agreement on zones and rates to be incorporated in the Taxicab Ordinance and the fixing of hours for the operation of Parking Meters.

A housing committee to study the needs of Bennington Park also was appointed by Mayor Robert L. Dossie.

The taxicab fares and zones allow for an increase in fares. As the present ordinance was adopted in 1930, when costs of operation and the salaries of drivers were far below what they are now certainly the operators were entitled to an increase.

And as no one appeared at the hearing to oppose the ordinance the board was justified in taking prompt action in the matter. While the ordinance has yet to be put in proper form for formal adoption at the next meeting, all the terms were agreed on and they will become operative about May 1.

The hours fixed for the operation of Parking Meters, 9 A. M. to 8 P. M., are a compromise, as the Freeport Merchants Association and Chamber of Commerce has proposed the time be from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M. However, the civic groups favored retention of the present schedule. This change also will go into effect on May 1.

Appointment of the Housing Committee followed a number of conferences with residents of the Bennington Park Section. Peter Kelly is named chairman. His brother Paul, who was counsel for a time to the original Housing Authority, is to serve in that capacity for the committee. Other members are the Rev. John J. Madden, who was chairman of the former Authority, the Rev. David G. Jaxheimer, Moxie Rigby and Philip Nickelsberg. All are to serve without compensation.

REFLECTIONS

By Edmund R. Wernicke

The Path Between

From that great heap of laurels we
In tribute have bestowed
On him who meets his destiny
Upon the straight, high road,

I take one for the knave, content
Upon the road below
For his one virtue: evil bent
Though all the world should know.

It is strange kin to honesty
To play the rogue and find
No righteous show of purity
And truth to hide behind.

It proves strange courage, too, to say
To those up on the hill,
"I am as I appear," you may Think of me as you will."

I trust him none, but far less I Trust those who are, I know,
Too wicked for the road on high,
Too timid for the low.

The hypocrites who would slip by,
Heart, mind, and soul unseen,
Upon the road not truth nor lie,
But just a path between.

Crescendo Club Plans For April Guest Night

Plans for guest night to be observed on Thursday night, April 20, in the home of Mrs. H. Carlisle Voss, 270 Randall ave., were made at the monthly meeting of the Crescendo Club, of Freeport, in the home of Mrs. Frederic J. Porter, 64 West Milton st., Thursday night. Mrs. Everett Thayer, the president, presided.

A guest artist will be heard and members of both the Junior and senior groups will perform.

Mrs. Harold J. Blass gave a talk on the life and music of Franz Schubert. She analyzed the first movement of his unfinished symphony. Her talk was illustrated by playing records and giving piano interpretations. Mrs. C. C. Glenn O'Donovan played Nocturne in F Sharp by Chopin as a piano solo. Members are planning to attend a performance of the opera Carmen in Manhattan shortly.

The Leader Bookshelf

By MRS. ELIZABETH F. KELLY
Librarian, Freeport
Memorial Library

"Until the Day Break" by Sallie Lee Bell. Woven through biblical fact is the fiction of this love story of Judah and Mara. Mara, whom you will recognize as a famous woman of the Bible, is a young Jewish maiden who has left the "old of Abraham" to become a favorite of King Herod. Their meeting on the road to Joppa marks the beginning of their tragic love and sacrifice and yet for both, their ultimate redemption and salvation through "The Master."

Among familiar characters, the reader meets Herodias and her infamous daughter, Salome, the woman at the well. The humble Nazarene brings healing to the story. If you are inclined to pause and ponder "things spiritual," or if you are the "down-to-earth" reader, do not miss "Until the Day Break." Although it is to be found in the High School Department of the Library, adults will find it equally interesting and refreshing. Make it one of your Lenten Season "musts."

It was years after Norah came to live at the Grange that Aunt Polly painted it pink and it was there after known as "The Pink House." Norah at the time was just a little girl, her father had to go to South America, so she was sent to live with Aunt Ellen, Paul, Mary Ellen, Dossie, Jed and Uncle John Dickinson. Aunt Polly, who also lived at the Grange, soon became her real friend, though at times she seemed very exacting, yet Norah's lameness and need of crutches, Aunt Polly felt she should learn to live as it comes. Up to this time, life had been made as easy for Norah as possible under the circumstances. It was Aunt Polly, too, who took over Norah's education after she had tried to get to school with the other children. Norah really didn't want to stay home for lessons, she felt she'd never be accepted by the others. This is not the only undercurrent that is felt in the book. One was very early explained to Norah and her decision, later on, to use that knowledge may have been due to the feeling that she did work out for ultimate good.

As in most family stories, there is character development, joy and pain, greed and love, interest and hold. No one would claim "The Pink House" has literary merit, but how many books do have. It is questionable if many will enjoy it as much as they did Nalle Gardner, White's former book, "No Trumpet Before Him," but it can be suggested for an evening's relaxation before gardening begins. Here again, as in so many recent books, we have a beautiful but disagreeable, perhaps pitiful, woman.

Archer Pupils Present Interesting Program

Under the general direction of Miss Mildred A. Milligan, first grade teacher, 80 first grade children participated in a recent assembly program in the auditorium of the Archer St. school.

The program opened with a puppet show, "Little Peewee," by the pupils of Miss Ruth Wagner.

Following this, Miss Mary Koppelman's class presented a choral recitation entitled "The Circus."

As a finale, the pupils of Miss Milligan and Mrs. Dorothy Johnson sang a group of numbers celebrating the approach of spring.

It was "Swing Your Partner," "Promenade," "Honor Your Corner," and "Leave Her Alone" as Miss Ann Horesco's fourth grade pupils entertained their mothers in the gymnasium with a series of folk dances designed to show part of the recreational program class being provided for elementary age children.

In addition to the dancing, the class sang "Mill Wheels," "The Marionettes," "The Soldier Game" and "The Thieving Fox."

VASIL'S VARIETIES

By Eddie Vasil

COLUMBIAN CALAMITY . . . In answer to a critic of this column, one who doesn't believe that good deeds deserve good words, who feels that Freeport is just another village, and who thinks we do wrong when we publicly acclaim and boost Freeport and Freeporters—all we can say is "You're So Wrong!"

We could write about: That somebody who was covered by his group, when money "disappeared" from the organization funds while he held office. . . . The tall attractive blonde (seen in many local gin-mills) who petty-larcened a fin from the till of a W. Merrick rd. liquor store. . . . The south-side matron who holds those parties while her husband is out trying to bring home the bacon (names on request). . . . About "LUCKY" RILEY who won a small fortune with galloping dominoes over the week-end (and about those floating fiestas). . . . The local who sports a blue police-marked spot-lite on his bulk, could be called on the carpet. . . . About a young professional who became too friendly with a client and admits publicly. . . . And about the true type, a certain big-front merchant showed himself to be, when an employee asked for time off when tragedy hit his family, but was refused! . . . BUT WE WON'T!

LEADER'S DIGEST . . . Installation of ROBERT N. KINSEY as Chief of Freeport Fire Department, to be held at gala celebration April 15th in South Shore Yacht Club. . . . Didja know that MOE WEIGOLD now dispatcher with the Freeport Taxi Association (R.R. Ave.) is a former Wall st. broker? . . . Biggest hit in last ten years in skill games sweeping the country is called "Shuffle-Alley." (Combination of shuffle board and billiards). . . . Player competition has been lined three-deep at "The Story" (So. Main bar-grill). . . . The handsome fellow touring the town with your reporter was United Press' DAVID WHITNEY. (He's a biggie in their New York office. . . . Our salute to EDDIE YANKWITT of the Press Construction Co. (Sunrise Hwy.) "cause we informers swore off liquor for good! . . . Good to know that one of the most popular municipal employees joined Alcoholics Anonymous.

FREEPORTING THE NEWS . . . AL ILLIES, (former local Whelan Drug fountain) celebrates another birthday April 1st. (But aren't they expecting a date with a diaper service after all these years?) . . . TV talk scouts are missing the boat if they don't count CAROLE KREGG, 10-year-old dancer, recently featured in "Red Shoes." (158 Whaley st.—her folks own Bayview Pharmacy). . . . JOHNNIE (Quinn) RUTH'S watchful eye saved the KIWANIS (children's fund raising project) gum ball machine from being lifted by two juvenile delinquents in the C & R Rest. Friday night. . . . Mid-nite phone tip sent your reporter to Woodcock Restaurant Friday night to interview a visiting Arabian Shiek with an oriental harem enjoying Rene's Rendezvous. (It was the ARTHUR SCHERWITZ who attended the "report" Art Qualls, musician, who informed your reporter of the liquor for good!) . . . Good to know that one of the most popular municipal employees joined Alcoholics Anonymous.

SUNDAY PARTY PATTEN . . . Your reporter honored with an invite to attend shin-dig Sunday morning at Fire Dept. Headquarters on 21st. It was a celebration by campaign committee for JOHNNY MARRA, candidate for Second Deputy Chief. His enviable record amazing: member of the dept. for 22 years; held every company office; served as chairman of Bus Ride Committee to Firemen's Home; and Children's Christmas Party, etc., etc. Wonderful spirit shown by this group of capable public servants. They are volunteers and the only reward they receive is knowing that they are serving the community in an important assignment, and in the pleasures of their get-togethers. They leave their wealth and positions at the door and true fellowship and cooperation rules whether fighting fires or having fun.

AROUND TOWN . . . Madison Square Garden fights will not compare to the "Century of the Century" if, when SLUGGER (and) SCHIMMEL, 160-lb. Freeport Sanitation Dept. fistic ace, tangles with ATOMIC TONY of Primavera's E. Merrick rd. oasis. Both are champs, but big IF holding up the bout—Schimmel's size 13 feet still shoeless. (Proceeds were to go to Home for Aged Salad Wagons). . . . Red Vaping Captain, GEORGE BERLMISTER, is one of the waterfronts best liked and most interesting personalities. (This heavyweight was the famous "Flying Dutchman" of aviation who made the first parachute jump over Gates Field). . . . RENE CORDAY, who waterressed at the Poop Deck last season, now does a floor show "trick" at the Ha Ha Club on Strip-tease lane (52nd st.) billed as "Sherry Corday."

TID-BITS . . . "MIKE" MITTHAUER, well-known local waitress, didn't wait 'til June for her Apple Blossoms and preacherman. Good thing he's good natured, because 62-JERRY GRIFFIN is taking a terrific razing as "Capt. Video" since he's been wearing those trademark goggles and western boots. . . . George (Stadium) Morrison offers a bottle of "perfume" to anyone who can give the origin of the nickname "Vamps" tagged to volunteer firemen. (Send to this desk and we'll judge.)

EDDIE TORIES . . . Man-about-town SAM SARRATEDE due to become a grandpop in April when his "Frank and Virginia" expect their son. . . . JIM GIORDANO made a fuel oil delivery to a needy family. (Only 50 gallons and at 2 A. M., yet he showed only the most courteous manner). Can I say he's a nice guy? . . . Congratulations to BERKELEY SWEEZEY of 325 Bedell st., newly elected president of Freeport High School General Organization. . . . RUSS CRANDALL, Chief Editor of "Fishing" (latest edition) this week is awarded to the local sportsman's magazine covering our waterfront for pictures and stories. . . . JOEY O. PETERSON CONSTRUCTION almost finished with Parking Field No. 5 located behind SCOTTIE MITCHELL'S on W. Merrick rd. (Will open to public soon.)

DURVEA ORCHID CREATION . . . Your reporter met a really deserving applicant for welfare assistance who, gratefully praised the kind and cooperative manner of the personnel of the Nassau County Welfare Department. Her statements about BOB CAMPBELL and his crew made you glad to be a taxpayer. So as a symbol of appreciation to the whole department, the DURVEA ORCHID this week is awarded to Freeporter ELEANOR HAMMILL of 319 Bedell st. of the N. C. Welfare Dept. A million public thanks to those who help those who need.

SOMETHING IN THE WIND . . . Plenty of clues around that one of the biggest attractions on Long Island is planning to sponsor an activity that would turn the spotlight of attention to the locality picked as the site. Freeport is seriously being considered. Freeport could stand a spark of this type because, regardless of past interference, it has become packed with dynamite and ready to explode into the leading Nassau community. Here's hoping we get the honor.

L.I. Ass'n. to Hold Wage and Hours Clinic

Benj. J. Werne Speaker
At April 18 Event
In Garden City Hotel

Benjamin J. Werne, attorney, industrial relations counsel and adjunct-professor of industrial relations of the Graduate School of Business at New York University, will conduct a Wage and Hours Clinic at a luncheon meeting of the Long Island Association, Tuesday, April 18, in the Garden City Hotel. To set the scene for the clinic,

Mr. Werne will deliver a half-hour address on labor relations as applied to industry, agriculture, commercial fishing, transportation, retailing and wholesaling.

John D. Whitmore, executive secretary in charge of the Association's Industrial Bureau, in announcing the clinic, said the association would supply each person at the clinic with a guide to handling over-time payments as covered in the recent wage-and-hours regulations. This guide has been prepared in simplified form for easy understanding by the average business man.

The pamphlet, according to Mr. Whitmore, will be the first in a series to be issued by the Commercial and Technical Information Service of the association.

Four hundred representative Long Islanders at the 1950 inaugural annual dinner of the association in the Garden City Hotel, heard Henry J. Taylor, news commentator, author and traveler, speak on "Your Land and Mine."

Vigorously criticizing the United States' foreign policy, Mr. Taylor quoted Lenin as saying, "The day will come when we will force the United States to spend itself to destruction."

He asserted that this statement is still the core of the Russian attitude toward the United States and "unless we preserve our American way of life through private enterprise we will be forced into a situation that can only increase the probability of aggressive action." He pointed out examples of the attitude of the Kremlin in connection with the breakdown of the national government which has been endangered by the boring-from-within technique of the Communists.

"What the Russians fear most," said Mr. Taylor, "is the maintenance of America's productive capacity which is unmatched in the world." He strongly urged economy in government expenditures and pointed out that the Hoover Commission's recommendation for economy and efficiency in the Federal Administration would do much to improve the economic strength of the United States.

President Arthur T. Roth, of Rockville Centre, spoke briefly, reporting that the association was actively engaged in an effort to attract desirable industries to the Island while there are still areas available for industrial use. "In bringing selected industry to Long Island," said Mr. Roth, "we will be making a strong contribution to our own security. We will be helping to make Long Island a better place in which to live and work. Our objectives are that each county be as self-sustaining as possible, creating its own employment, filling these jobs with local people and the people, in turn, spending their dollars for purchases within their local communities."

He emphasized that a great number of different kinds of industry, carefully selected, would reduce the employment hazard and distribute the tax load brought on by skyrocketing real estate demands. James W. Carpenter presided as program chairman. The Glee Club of the Long Island Agricultural and Technical Institute, Freeport, and C. Maurer, organist, provided musical renditions.

DOBSON TO ADDRESS WOODHULL D.A.R. UNIT

Meade C. Dobson, managing director of the Long Island Association, will address the monthly meeting of Ruth Floyd Woodhull Chapter, D.A.R., Saturday at 2:30 P. M., in the home of Miss Helen L. Strang, in Wantagh. He will speak on "Conservation of Long Island's Natural Resources." Mrs. A. W. Place, chairman of conservation, will preside. Mrs. Edward R. Ebbs will be chairman of hostesses.

Public-spirited local merchants, as an expression of goodwill, want you to receive this lovely bait gift. If you have just moved to the city, become engaged, are a new mother, have just moved to a new address within the city, or just become Sweet Sixteen, there's nothing to buy. No obligation. Well-fed Lawns Will Thrive Without Water, Expert Says

RIDGEFIELD, N. J., March 30.—The restrictions on the use of hose and sprinklers which are certain to be invoked this summer in water-short New York City and suburban communities in nearby New Jersey, Westchester County and Long Island offer a real but not insurmountable challenge to lawn owners.

A professional lawn builder of 27 years' experience, Fredric M. Smith, points out "that even without artificial watering lawns of the metropolitan area can be saved for future, wetter years by a simple program which will help offset damage from lack of moisture."

Mr. Smith is eastern manager of
O. M. Scott and Sons Co., lawn specialists, with facilities here. He said the program he had in mind for lawn owners was based on the proven theory that healthy grass—like a healthy body—best withstands privation.

"During the severe drought on Long Island in the 1930's I observed that some lawns stayed bright and green throughout the summer while others scorched and withered. Invariably the lawns which thrived were well-fed. It will be the well-fed lawn which will best survive the coming summer during which all grass in the metropolitan area will go thirsty except for rainfall."

The four-point program which he says will help lawns through the dry months ahead is the result, Mr.
Smith said "of my own experience of nearly 30 years and that of Scott's Lawn Research."

The program:

1. Have soil checked immediately by reputable laboratory and treat with agricultural lime if results indicate excessive acidity.
2. Feed the lawn generously and at least three times during the season, preferably in April, June and September. Feeding, helps produce vigorous healthy roots along deep-growing enough to resist waterless intervals under the hot summer sun.
Make the feeding extra heavy where there are trees to offset nourishment taken by them.
3. At the first sign of hot weather, set the lawn mower to cut at 2 inches, rather than at the fashionable shorter lengths. What is lost in the appearance of the lawn will be more than offset by the protection given the roots by the shade of the longer blades of grass.
4. Exercise vigorous control over lawn pests and weeds. Weed's "steal" nourishment from the lawn as well as being unsightly. Many insect pests attack the roots of lawns with disastrous results.

"By adhering to this program," Mr. Smith concluded, "the lawns of homes, churches, schools, industries, parks and cemeteries in the water-shortage regions can not only be saved but kept at a high peak of presentability until such time as the reservoirs are brimming and restrictions are lifted."

Christian Science

"Unreality" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday at 11 A. M. in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, West Merrick rd. at Elm pl. The golden text is "Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it" (Job 35:13).

The sermon will be from Psalms 37:1, 9, 35 and 36; King James version:

"Fret not thyself because of evil-doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.
For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit the earth. . . . I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree. Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not; yea, I sought him, but he could not be found."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Attempts to conciliate society and so gain dominion over mankind, arise from worldly weakness. . . . Mankind must learn that evil is not power. Its so-called despotism is but a phase of nothingness. Evil thoughts and aims reach no farther and do no more harm than one's belief permits. Evil thoughts, lusts, and malicious purposes cannot go forth, like wandering pollen, from one human mind to another, finding unsuspected lodgment, if virtue and truth "build a strong defence" (pp.

238, 102, 234).

Bourguignon Lists Progress In So. Nassau Hospital Drive

Theodore J. Bourguignon, general chairman of the campaign committee to raise $1,250,000 with which to enlarge the South Nassau Communities Hospital this week issued a detailed report of accomplishments and plans for the future. This will be the largest campaign of this nature ever conducted in the history of Nassau County.

The campaign was announced last November at the 21st anniversary dinner at the Garden City Hotel. At that time it was pointed out that the hospital has been serving the public for 21 years. Since the initial building fund campaign it has never had occasion to go to the public for funds of any kind. The fact that the hospital is governed by a representative board of directors from villages of South Nassau communities who serve without pay, and also the hospital's status as a non-profit organization was brought to light. The campaign is divided largely into two parts. The first will be the public relations and initial gifts ping zones, extending from Merrick road to Randall ave., will be charged the additional 15 cents making the cost of the ride 65 cents. The same will be true of those traveling east and west who go through the overlapping areas.

There will be two zones north of the railroad tracks and five to the south with graded fares. These were outlined in detail in THE LEADER of March 16.

William F. Glacken, who conducted the conferences with the taxi operators while the details of the ordinance were under consideration, said the cost of operations had increased to such an extent it was absolutely necessary to grant the taxi operators an increase in rates.

Chairman M. Tint represented the operators at the hearing and Richard Newhouse and Charles Gobel spoke for the owners. No opposition to the proposed rates was voiced. All joined with Mayor Robert L. Bocksee in thanking Trustee Glacken for devoting his time in bringing about an agreement between the taxi operators and the Village Board.

Details of an amendment to the Taxicab Ordinance providing for temporary licenses for drivers also were agreed on and will be incorporated in the ordinance for adoption at the next board meeting.

Cancer Fund Campaign Kick-Off Dinner Tonight

The 1950 Cancer Crusade of the Nassau County Cancer Committee gets underway tonight with a Kick-Off Dinner in the Garden City Hotel. More than 400 volunteers in the battle against cancer are expected to attend.

Among speakers included will be Dr. Theodore J. Curphey, chairman of the Board of Directors; Norman F. Penny, general chairman of the drive, and District Attorney Frank A. Gulotta, chairman of the general canvass.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. Joseph A. Smith of the St. Thomas the Apostle R.C. Church of West Hempstead. The benediction will be by the Very Rev. Hubert S. Wood, Dean of the Cathedral of the Incarnation of Garden City.

Other special events to mark the opening of the campaign include a special program of instructions for volunteer workers today at 5:15 P.M. over station WELI.

Two top-flight local artists and two prominent physicians will serve as judges for the poster contest. Chairman of the judges will be Paul Brown, of Garden City. The other artist will be Mrs. Victor G. White. The two representatives of the medical profession are Dr. John E. McGowan and Dr. John G. Connell. The contest ends tomorrow.
